Learnings from the laws of Rugby

Speaker: Wayne Barnes
Lawyer & Retired Rugby Referee

Wayne is a former international rugby union referee and has presided over more Rugby World Cup matches than anyone else in history, including the 2023 Rugby World Cup Final.

During his speech, Wayne will discuss his experiences of officiating professional rugby and what organisations and management can learn from the world of sport.

He will also consider the importance of clear decision making, remaining calm as the pressure rises and the importance of language and communication skills.
